

STATE LICENSE/SURETY BOND

COVERAGE

Mortgage bankers, brokers and lenders are required to maintain a state specific license bond that guarantees the mortgage entity will comply with statutory laws protecting the public from misrepresentation. A claim on a surety bond is often in the form of a complaint made by a third party to the state and may relate to an error made during the day-to-day activities of the mortgage entity or if the mortgage entity failed to pay a third party for a service provided.
